

August 13, 1912

DIES SUDDENLY

Ed. Pfeifer died Friday afternoon at the home of his brother Max, death resulting from heart disease and dropsy.

Deceased was an old-time resident of this locality and for several years bought grain at James. Of late years, however, he had made his home in Aberdeen.

He was forty-three years of age, and came to this locality from Watertown, Wis., in 1888 with his father's family, settling at the Yorkville crossing of the James River.

Mr. Pfeifer bought wheat last year in North Dakota, and upon returning was apparently in his usual health until about the time of his death. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 12:00 at Max Pfeifer's and at 2:30 at James church and interment occurred at Groton Union Cemetery. Rev. P. Graef conducted the funeral service. He is survived by one daughter of fifteen years four brothers and three sisters.

He had been up and around during the day, and was taken with a sinking spell while resting in a tent at his brother's home. Attempting to reach the house he fell by the way, and breathed his last before he could be carried into the house.